LACMA

CORPORATE MEMBERSHIP

PATRON LEVEL $5,000 (TAX-DEDUCTIBLE $3,085)

LACMA's Corporate Members—a rapidly-expanding donor group comprising over 60 companies—provide funding critical to the museum's key functions: special exhibitions, art acquisitions, collections care, and one of the most extensive education programs in the nation.

Through membership, corporate partners involve their entire organizations in the museum, allowing employees access to one of Los Angeles' foremost cultural resources, while also providing executives with networking and client entertaining opportunities.

At the Patron level ($5,000) of corporate membership, companies enjoy the following benefits:

- Free admission for all employees (note: companies with more than 150 employees must join at the Sponsor level for this benefit)
- Invitations for two (2) executives to LACMA's most exclusive donor events and exhibition previews
- Two (2) membership cards providing unlimited general admission, reciprocal membership at 24 museums nationwide and museum discounts
- Invitations for all employees to biannual Corporate Associates Evenings, featuring a reception and private exhibition viewing
- Private docent tours, invitations to behind-the-scenes events, and insider access to one of the nation's largest museums
- 50 VIP passes for special ticketed exhibitions
- Four exhibition catalogs annually
- 10% discount for all employees at the museum store, and 20% discount on new memberships
- Recognition on our annual donor wall, in our publications, and on our website
